PUSD Rejects 6% Salary Increase

After an hour's executive session, the Board of Trustees of the Placentia Unified School District Monday night denied requests for pay raises to both teachers of the Placentia Unified Education Association and classified employees of the California School Employees Association.

Teachers had sought a 6 per cent boost in pay and classified employees asked for a similar hike based on the cost of living index.

In rejecting the teachers' request, the school board explained that the 6 per cent increase for a six-month period, until school is out for summer vacation, would cost PUSD taxpayers $310,378.

In a prepared statement the board outlined that "during the current 1974-75 school year our expenditures for continuing our educational program will equal our income... Therefore the request plus our increments would exceed our income and the only way this could be funded would be a major cutback in employees in order to get the additional funds."

"The Board of Education rejects this method of obtaining additional funds because of the effect it would have upon our educational program, as well as the morale of our employees."

Continuing, the board offered a hope of later relief to employees by declaring: "The board's representative has been further directed to structure the proposed budget for 1975-76 to include salary increases as one of the board's priorities."

A similar statement accompanied the denial of the classified request, pointing out that the salary boost for the six months would cost taxpayers an additional $85,680. The board explained similarly that the cost could be borne only by employee cutbacks.

William Cook, a Placentia citizen, was the only member of the public to address the board on the salary issue declaring that he thought the employee request "unrealistic. They already have an 8 per cent increase and now they want another 6 per cent," he pointed out.

"That would make a 14 per cent increase."

"They already enjoy more vacation time at Christmas and Easter alone...as much vacation as I have all year. Eight per cent is ample. The 6 per cent should not be allowed," he told the board."

Any further action on the matter would come from the two employee organizations and Kenneth Lorge, treasurer of the PUEA explained that "now we take it back to our members."

Benefit For March Of Dimes

Placentia's first annual Golf Championships, for the benefit of the March of Dimes, will be held Monday, February 10 at the Alta Vista Country Club, with 144 golfers starting play at the same time "at gun shot".

Two foursome will start simultaneously at each of the 18 holes, playing on to completion, Raul Rangel, chairman of the tournament explained.

Proceeds from the event will be given to the March of Dimes, Edwin Powell, Placentia City Administrator and City Chairman of the drive stated.

Eighteen holes of golf and an electric cart are available for $25 per person. Only men are permitted to play in the event. Play will be followed by an awards presentation and banquet at 6:30 p.m. Play will begin at 12 noon.

Deadline for entering the tournament is 5 p.m. Wednesday, February 5 at Powell's office at City Hall, 401 East Chapman.

Special events include the longest drive on the tenth hole, the greatest number of birdies and closest to the hole at the 15th hole.

Special awards will include a set of championship woods and a set of irons. The price of the banquet is included in the registration fee, Powell said.

POSTER GIRL Martha Peralta, 6, will be the prettiest caddy at the upcoming first annual Placentia March of Dimes Golf Tournament. The championship play is scheduled for Monday, February 10, at the Alta Vista Country Club. Edwin T. Sunday Is Last Day To Register

The final day for registering to vote in the Placentia Unified School Board election, March 4, will be Sunday, February 2, the Orange County Registrar of Voters reminded this week.

Special arrangements for those who wish to register will be open Saturday and Sunday, February 1 and 2 from 12 noon to 5 p.m. at two locations in this area.

Deputy registrars will be stationed at the K-Mart, 1930 North Placentia Avenue, Fullerton and Von's Market in the Country Club Shopping Center, Yorba Linda Boulevard and Fairmont Boulevard, Yorba Linda.

Whetmore Eyes Alien Laws

Orange County State Senator James E. Whetmore said this week that he is seeking a legal decision from legislative counsel in Sacramento, concerning the report from the Placentia Police Department on illegal aliens in Placentia.

"I am advised that illegal aliens in California can obtain drivers licenses, Social Security cards, welfare assistance, unemployment insurance, Workmen's Compensation insurance, health care, schooling and can sue for civil damages," the query stated.

"Please advise me whether or not the above is true and if so what legislation California could constitutionally pass to prevent illegal aliens from receiving these privileges."

The query, Senator Whetmore said, was based on the 215-page report on the illegal alien problem in Placentia written and compiled by Lt. James Corrigan and released publicly by Police Chief Norman Traub.

Senator Whetmore further stated that "if legislation is practical, I will most assuredly consider carrying it n this session of the legislature."

Key Ranch

Additional action has been taken by Orange County Supervisors to assure preservation of the George Key Ranch.

Combined with four other county historical sites, selected by the County Historical Commission, the ranch has received top priority for acquisition and preservation. It also will be registered with the National Registrar of Historical Places.

Funding will now be sought to preserve the ranch considered typical of the countys orange ranchers from the late 19th and early 20th centuries.

Condemnation Proceeds

The city of Placentia will continue with plans to purchase an additional five acres of ground just north of the present Civic Center at Chapman Avenue and Kraemer Boulevard.

The land has been appraised at $85,000 an acre and is currently in friendly condemnation proceedings with the owners, Founders K Corporation.

The owners are seeking additional information, that the appraisal report be provided to them; the exact area and description of the acreage and the date when condemnation will be culminated.

Action by the Placentia City Council was unanimous.

Council Whips Up Policy

Voting to hear possible abuses of the misspending of expense funds by individual councilmen in executive session and therefore away from the eye of the public, the Placentia City Council last Tuesday night adopted an expense fund policy which offered some restraints on the present "open-end" system.

The vote was unanimous although Councilman and former mayor Robert Langer, who has in many instances, fought alone for a complete, detailed and receipted accounting system, said this week that he will be bringing the matter before the council again on February 3 for additional clarification.

He said among his concerns would be whether expenses allowed to city council members would also apply to the 30 city-appointed commissioners as well as city staff.

The February 3 date will include an additional required reading of the policy.

Setting, for the first time, an accounting system on how city council members will report their duty-related expenses, the unanimous vote included:

A monthly report on expenses (generally followed but previously up to individual councilmen).

A summary of councilmen's expenses with a detailed breakdown monthly with year-to-date (previously issued only upon request.)

Mileage will remain at 12 cents a mile but an explanation per trip will be required (previously no explanation given, only a lump sum).

Storage, parking and tolls will be allowed with receipts for single expense over $2, but not under $2 (previously allowed with no limit).

Meals and entertainment with receipts required only above $25 but with an explanation concerning the meals. (Past policy allows meals and entertainment with no limit and no accounting).

Dependent care (Babysitting), allowed with explanation (past policy was vague but babysitting charges have been allowed). A $2 rate was mentioned.

Periodicals: Subscriptions, except for local newspapers, to be channeled through the city. (Past policy stated as vague; but expense has been allowed).

Cleaning, laundry, others, not on a trip, will be allowed but must be receipted. (Past policy has been to allow without receipting).

Credit cards, prominent in the present controversy: To be allowed for business use only. (Past policy stated as 'allowed').

A format for conference expenses was quickly approved with all councilmen voting aye on:

Requests approved by the mayor prior to a cash advance.

Expense voucher within ten days after a return.

School Bonds Needed

Mrs. Jean Pappas, present president of the Placentia Unified School District, who is running for reelection March 4, wil be solidly campaigning for the necessity of $20 million in bonds for future PUSD school construction.

"There are already housing tracts filed that will produce more than 4,000 students," she explains. "Wherever in the district there are students, if facilities are not built to accommodate them, then they will have to use whatever facilities exist.

"If this happens, we will be faced with crisis management. Afterall, we cannot turn a child away. By law we must put them into a classroom situation.

"This could mean half day sessions; it could mean unnecessary busing."

The present PUSD Board of Trustees and staff are recommending the $20 million in bonds to provide for an estimated need of four elementary schools, one junior high school and the first phase of a senior high.

The way the bonds work, Mrs. Pappas explains, the district must be bonded to 10 per cent of its assessed valuation.

"We go out and sell a bond to that figure and if the school costs more than that, then the state picks up the difference."

From the last bond issue that voters in PUSD approved, state funding provided the difference between the $16 million spent from local taxes to the $21 million the schools cost...a savings of $5 million here.

Bond money cannot be spent in a haphazard fashion. "When we say the youngsters are here," Mrs. Pappas explains, "the state doesn't just take our word for it. The number of house slabs is counted. Then when the houses go up, utility applications are checked to know how many families have moved in."

"Also," Mrs. Pappas continued, "if the bond money is not needed, it is not spent. It just stays there."

Not passing the bonds can be more expensive than approving them, Mrs. Pappas outlines. "If they don't pass, then we have a pyramiding effect. If we must build a school we have to get a loan from the bank, which has to be paid off in a short period of time. Paying for that will increase taxes because we must continue to pay this 80 cents per hundred to pay off the loans we already have."

"We would have a double tax...and it would raise property taxes." A vote for the bonds would just continue our current rate of reimbursement over more years.

"Everything else but the bonds is a very expensive way to go," Mrs.

Backs To Improve

Edward P. Backs, prominent citizen of Placentia, "is a very sick man and has been in intensive care for over a week, but he is holding his own at present," his physician G. Wendell Olson, Fullerton, reported Tuesday afternoon.

"We haven't concluded our tests," Dr. Olson explained, "and we have a number of specialists with him. He has been a very ill patient, but we expect him to recover."

He is in Anaheim Memorial Hospital. Dr. Olson said that Backs' illness has not been completely diagnosed.

Backs, the city's greatest benefactor with his wife, Mrs. Angeline Backs, has bestowed hundreds of thousands of dollars in gifts upon the citizens of Placentia. Presently, the famed couple are building a $100,000 Veterans Fountain in Kraemer Park, as a memorial to all who have died in battle.

It Must Be Monday; ..... We're Almost Home!

What's a pretty girl like you?

It was a monumental experience pretty, blond Kimberly Butrum is not likely to forget.

The poverty in Egypt.

Living conditions in Africa.

The sentries with machine guns stationed at service stations in Peru.

The students she met in South America who used to write political articles, but dare not any more... "because you disappear."

The beauty of the Sistine Chapel "(It's so beautiful, you think you're in heaven...there's nothing like it in the world.)"

Chile, Brazil, Turkey, Casablanca, Morocco, Cyprus, Crete, Florence, the pyramids.

All a part of four months of living jam-packed into a unique segment known as Orange County's Chapman College Campus afloat.

Kimberly glowingly describes the wonders of listening to a teacher on deck explain the geologic formations of the Straits of Magellan, while viewing the "fabulous, magnificent' sight with snow cascading over the rough rocks, down to the ocean.

The wonders of Kimberly's semester voyage are mixed. The beauty she encountered, such as the art work of Naples, Greece (probably her favorite country.) Contrasted with the fear among the students in countries of South America and the abject, destructive poverty of Africa and Egypt.

On Africa: "All the places we saw were really dirty. It was shocking. We met a college boy in Dakar. He helped us trade for the shirt (in the picture). He took us back to his house...one long building, like a shack. It had burlap for a door...three rooms and different families living in each room. It was really hot.

"We asked for a drink. He brought in a tin cup, like a tin can. It was filthy. We couldn't drink out of it."

"Infant mortality in Sene-

Senegal is 70 per cent. That many kids die. It's because of the filth."

"The students with us attended a birth out in the bush in Ghana. No medical help. The baby died but it was considered a success because the mother lived."

On empathy with race relations: "In Senegal we were the only whites in a solid black population. All of a sudden, race became a big thing in your life. It makes you aware of how the blacks must feel here. It was an interesting situation. Everyone was black but you and your friends."

On Women: "There are no women on the streets... just men. Mosiems won't allow you to take their pictures unless you pay them enough."

Peru: "Peru is under a military goverment. I didn't expect a lot of machine guns. Around the gas station there was a soldier with a machine gun. And he looked like he would use it."

Chile: "Turmoil! That held true for all the Latin American countries we visited. People don't speak out against the government. If they do they disappear. Everything is in a turmoil."

Argentina and Brazil: "not my special countries. Everything is so modern in the big cities, but not in the backlands. People there aren't involved in the decision making at all. They get used to it and live with it."

"In Chile, an activist student was taken away. They don't have to account for it...just took her away. It makes you glad we live in the United States...not having to account to a soul. There you get taken away."

Students on the 18,000-gross-ton ocean liner, the SS Universe Campus, which serves Campus Afloat, are briefed on the countries they are about to visit before they dock. Places of interest are explained, but once on land the students actually are on their own. They are warned, however Doing in a place like this!

Councilman Declares Innocence

"If I were any other citizen of Brea I would not want a thief on my City Council," Don Symmes Brea City Councilman told a press conference Thursday, called at the Brea office of his new attorney, Robert P. Lawton.

Symmes, who is also a teacher at Troy High School in Fullerton, has been charged with shoplifting from the J.C. Penney store in Fullerton, where he was stopped in the parking lot with a woman's coat over his arm.

Symmes told several members of the area press that "I was doing my Christmas shopping. I had an engagement that evening (December 23). I put the coat over my arm and stopped to look at some women's purses."

The Brea Councilman said that he did not buy a purse but instead left the store, where he was apprehended.

Symmes said also that he had been told both by the administration at Troy High School and the Brea City Attorney that he need not resign his positions even if he is found guilty by the court.

He said, however, that he would resign both if the courts convict him.

Changing attorneys because the first one "did not have sufficient experience to handle the case", Symmes said "I have nothing to hide. I did not steal or attempt to steal. I am not a thief."

The Troy teacher said at the time of his arrest that he had a four figure bank account and more than $300 in his wallet.

"I might be an absent-minded professor, but I'm not a thief," Symmes concluded.

Trial is set for February 10 in municipal court.

Placentia-Brea Fire Pact Approved

A mutual aid fire protection agreement has been resolved between the cities of Placentia and Brea with each agreeing to come to the other's aid.

The joint operation will be put into force with each city sharing equally incosts of the necessary communications systems to make the system operate.

Placentia Fire Chief James Sims explained that units from the other city would move in to cover a vacant station when those units are occupied elsewhere with a major fire.

Placentia now has two fire stations, one on Valencia Avenue and the other on Bradford. The Bradford station is expected to be moved from its present location to the eastern extension of Chapman Avenue when it is completed.

Public Invited To Assist With Bicentennial

Ideas and suggestions are welcome from the public, the city's special Bicentennial Committee indicated this week.

A special public meeting, to discuss the subject, will be held at 7:30 p.m. Monday, February3 at the Backs Community Building, 201 North Bradford.

THE ATTRACTIVE CHESTER I. WHITTEN Community Building was dedicated Sunday with an overflow crowd who came to hear the speeches and enjoy the music and refreshments. Many special guests were present with speeches made by Albert Perales and Alfredo Garcia, president and vice president of the Placentia Redevelopment Association. Here the plaque for the building is unveiled by Mrs. Chester Whitten, the honoree, Chester Whitten, Mayor Robert Lyons, Councilman Jack Gomez and Mayor of the City of Orange Jess Perez, who was the principal speaker.

Council Expenses

No use of credit cards during the conference.

A $100 limit for southern California does not include room expense; $250 limit for nothern California and $500 national.

Travel arrangements through the city, with the room billed directly to the city.

No authorized travel for wives or husbands.

Individual citizens from the audience spoke to the expense accounting system, with a heavy predominance in favor of receipting.

Following a statement by Councilman Langer that "I personally feel when we're spending taxpayers money that it ought to be itemized and we ought to be able to account for it," there was applause from spectators.

Mayor Robert Lyons discussed the difficulty of getting receipts for meals and there was dialogue on the number of miles some councilmen drive.

Speaking on that subject Councilman Langer stated: "I'm not asking for receipts for gasoline, but some are driving 600 miles a month and I can't justify that."

Councilman Jack Gomez said he believed that "there is a built in $75 expenses a month."

Those speaking from the audience included Luci Grismer, Bonnie Steele, attorney John Prager and unsuccessful council candidate Don Holt.

Prager touched on the entertainment expense and how drinks are reported.

On entertainment expense, Prager asked: "Isn't this council getting an awful lot of social benefit from the party? And isn't it making a lot of connections for other purposes?"

In discussion on how to handle individual abuses by any single councilman, Mayor Lyons responded to Councilman Langer: "I've thought about that. What can one individual councilman do because all of us report to the same people. There isn't any one of us that's higher than the rest."

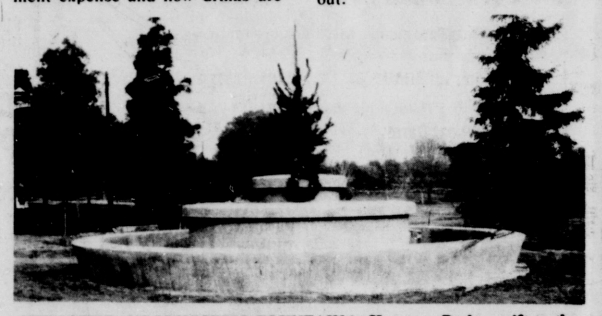
Placentia On Center Roster

At least one Day Care Center, under the management of the Orange County School District is scheduled to operate in Placentia sometime in the future.

Dr. Marvin Stewart, Director of Program Planning and Special Projects for the Placentia Unified School District said that the center, to be located at one of the local schools, will be operated by the county schools using state and federal grants.

Hours are expected to run from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m., or a similar time pattern to accommodate working mothers.

The state and federal monies will completely pay for the operation of the facility without using any local school money, Dr. Stewart pointed out.



THE VETERANS MEMORIAL FOUNTAIN in Kraemer Park, a gift to the city from Mr. and Mrs. Edward Backs, served as a Christmas tribute during the holiday season. The artistic, three-tiered fountain on its completion will feature four bronze dolphins sculptured in Norway and shipped through the Panama Canal to their destination here. A special plaza will surround the fountain.

Mrs. Pappas Platform

Pappas warns.

Concerning robbing the general fund, which provides salaries, services, educational programs and a host of other essentials, Mrs. Pappas warned that "our base revenue general funds are the lowest of all the united districts and we don't have much extra.

"If that were to happen, it would mean giving up music classes, extra physical education classes and a number of other things."

Continuing on the status of the buildings: "We do not have a lot of empty classrooms, we do have a few to allow for expansion, or right now we would be having double sessions.

"Every principal could put to good use an extra classroom. One vice principal's office is in a closet and when the speech therapist comes to school, she has to get out so that the therapist can have room."

"Declining enrollment has hit the newspapers," Mrs. Pappas continues, "so that people are apprehensive. I don't think we're faced with that here for a good ten years.

"Are we going to muddle around here and squeeze students altogether. The wish of the people in the past has been to avoid having their children put into a situation like that."

"The voters of the state supported Proposition 1 and that's where this additional money will come from."

Concerning the general platform for her campaign, Mrs. Pappas states that in the two-and-a-half years she has been on the board "we have operated with stable, systematic progress in all areas."

"Vandalism is down; we have established good team relationships throughout the district. Among the board's main objectives have been emphasis on reading, career education and drug abuse.

"We have planned maintenance; many of the schools have been painted, carpeted, air conditioned.

"This board also has operated itself very scrupulously and in accounting for its own expenses. I can honestly say that any executive sessions that the board has had have been used for purposes for which the law allows, personnel and site acquisition."

"We have been able to meet the needs of the teachers and the classified staff on their requests and still been able to balance the budget.

"Since the time I've been on the board, 1300 decisions have been made and 600 may have had a direct effect on students in the classroom. Three were unpopular with segments of the community and I feel we're not elected to do the popular thing...we're elected to do the wise thing.

"We try to be responsive," Mrs. Pappas concludes.

JEAN PAPPAS, first women president of the Placentia Unified School Board of Trustees, presides over a recent meeting. She is running for reelection March 4.

Teacher Group In Election

The political arm of the Placentia Unified Education Association, which represents the largest segment of teachers in the Placentia Unified School District, will support three candidates in the upcoming school board election, John Garner, President of PUEA said this week.

Questionnaires and interviews will be suggested from all candidates as to their "educational philosophy and the candidates' stand concerning the total good of the whole community," Garner explained.

of dangerous areas.

And a little entertainment is thrown in. Before they docked as Casablanca, they could view, if they wished, the Humphrey Bogart movie.

Morocco: "The first real Arabic place we hit. One girl got food poisoning. We saw the island and the slave block where slaves were auctioned off and shipped over to this country. That was very sad."

Camel rides: "In Casablanca we all took camel rides. The camels there have a single hump. The camels in Morocco are so uncomfortable...they have two humps with a saddle in between. You wouldn't believe how hard they are to straddle."

On shopping in Arab countries: "They come and grab you off the streets and take you into their shops. We weren't used to that! They just pull you in. 'Come with me. You're my friend. I like you! Men put their arms around the students and told us 'American girls are so free and loose! Not these girls we told them and pushed them off!"

Crete: "There is no sewage system. There is a little rocky thing that runs down the path and their sewage runs down there and that's it. It ends up at the bottom of the hill."

"There are no opportunities for women. It made me grateful for the chance I had. Look what I got to do. Women there, that's the only life they know."

Istanbul: "A beautiful skyline. They pray to Mecca five times a day. But only the men pray. A lot of the girls on the trip were incensed about the attitude there toward women."

The American students got in heated discussions with students in Greece over Cypress, Kimberly reports.

"I fell in love with Greece, with the people. But in Crete, things were so backward. We saw a man plowing on a hillside with a wooden hand plow...one little blade. Here (home) we're pampered so much, Kimberly reasons.

Egypt: "Egypt was the country we learned the most from. Everybody expected so much from Egypt. First, our ship had to stay off the coast and wait. We were apprehensive. We went into the harbor the next morning. The harbor was mined. Depth charges went off around the ship at intervals. Here we were 550 students, 200 faculty members and 200 crew members. It was the first time this large a group of Americans had been allowed in the country.

"They were afraid some frog man would attach a bomb to the bottom of our ship, so they would set the depth charges off, so that couldn't happen."

"We would drive down a road in Alexandria and there would be a sign: 'This road is mined." We hoped the sign was wrong.

"Egypt is 'the filthiest place in the whole world. It's worse than India. It smells. They are desperately in need for any kind of tourist trade and grateful for money. They need so much help.

"The streets are filthy. They won't allow you to take pictures of anything but the pyramids. You can't take pictures of a railroad station, a river or anything. You just don't realize people live like that.

"I was not struck by the pyramids. They are interesting, but they are not huge. They look so great and big in books...but not when you see them.

"Egypt was the poorest country we saw. Everywhere we looked we saw poverty."

'In Egypt there were worms in the food. Worms in crackers, in dates. We ate camel in Egypt...it was rubbery. They gave us food with soil on it.

"We're so far ahead of them. There you can't go out and buy good, clean food. In Alexandria, kids went to the bathroom in the sreet. It was depressing in Egypt...but think what we learned."

The students, in Rome, had an audience with the Pope...very impressive to Kimberly, who is not Catholic. "Italy was great. Greece, Italy and Turkey were my favorites."

Kimberly is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Butrum, Tangier Avenue in Placentia. A brother Kraig is president of his class at Valencia High School.

YL Library Sponsors Contest

The Yorba Linda District Library and other members of the Santiago Library System are sponsoring a bus-poster contest in cooperation with the OCTD. The competition is open to all persons fifteen years of age or older. The rewards include savings bonds, selected books and an opportunity to have works exhibited throughout Orange County via the OCTD buses.

Yorba Linda entrants will compete for a $50 Savings Bond, offered as the first place prize by the Friends of the Library and a $100 Savings Bond, the Grand Prize, furnished by the Santiago Library System. In addition, second and third place winners will be able to choose their prizes from a group of specially selected books. A total of 152 posters, selected from all participating libraries, will be displayed on the buses during the months of April and May.

The contest theme is "Your Public Library--Something of Everybody", and the deadline is March 1. All those interested in enteringmay pick up a complete list of contest rules at the reference desk of the Yorba Linda District Library.

El Rodeo Sets Feb. 2 Horse Show

A western horse show will be held by El Rodeo Riding Club at their Carbon Canyon grounds on Sunday, February 2. The show will begin at 9:30 a.m., and will be judged by Billy Warne of Peacock Hill in Orange. The trail judge will be David Treser, and photography will be by Robin Boris.

El Rodeo is including a class for stock horses in its program to accommodate a fast growing interest in reining classes. The new arena surface is ideal for this event.

School Bond Discussion At Sierra

The multipurpose room of Sierra Vista Elementary School will be the site of a meeting on the bond issue Thursday, January 30, at 7:30 p.m.

Both Dr. John Mullender and Dr. William Yates will speak. This provides an opportunity for voters to learn more about the school bond issue and everyone is welcome, the school said.

SALUTATIONS---ROTC students at El Dorado High School, line the walk to salute favorite teacher Sgt. Russel Rogers, who is retiring. But before leaving the campus, Sgt. Rogers had a real surprise in store...students and faculty named the school's library in his honor. Also included in the festivities Thursday was a public reception for the popular teacher.

Scouts Rebuild Mission Site

Scouts in Troop 99, Yorba Linda, were recently honored with the Historic Trails Award, following hours of work at the Los Flores Mission site. Award requirements stipulate work on the site or trail for at least 10 hours, a camp-out in the area overnight, and a study of the history of the surrounding area.

The local scouts joined with other Orange County scouts in reconstructing the Los Flores site. The Boy Scout Council of Orange owns 55 acres surrounding the site, and the mission, which is in ruins at the present time.

The council's plans are to have the mission excavated by a college for artifacts which will be on display in a museum on the site. The boy scouts within the council will reconstruct the mission to its original state. They with build the site the same way the indians did in 1822, using hand and foot, but no power tools. The boys will make the bricks with their feet, mashing straw into the adobe and forming the bricks in wooden forms.

Los Flores was a half-way house and sub-mission on the El Camino Real, located between the San Juan Capistrano and San Luis Rey Missions. Four hundred Indians lived in and around Los Flores, and a major battle was fought there in 1838 between Californians from Los Angeles and San Diego over the Mexican governorship of California.

The Boy Scout Council hopes to finish the mission reconstruction within the next five years. The boys in Troop 99 will be spending many days and nights during the next few years doing their part in this reconstruction.

The camp is open for the public to visit and watch as the boys work.

Aztecs Slate 1st Grad Night

The first meeting to plan Grad Night activities was held recently and the theme of "The World Is At Your Feet" was chosen.

The following parents will be serving as chairmen for the Grad Night party:

Breakfast--Joyce Knowles and Nan Wood; Chaperones--Mary Liston; Clean-up--Paul and Belio Saucedo; Cloakroom--Fran Jensen; Correspondence--Nancy Farrell; Decoration--Mary Eckard and Ellie Brown; Dinner--Rose Evans and Shirley Peterson; Door Prizes--Ron Laberge and Dale Peterson; Entertainment--Donna Reynolds; Finance--Tom Moore; Hospitality--Diane Shader; Programs--Anita Vega and Toni Porter; Publicity--Renee Spiro; Telephone--Mona King; Tickets and Reservations -- Marilyn Moore.

The Grad Night chairman, Mal Spiro, stated that help is needed to prepare for the event, and he urges anyone interested in helping to call 528-6055 or 993-1333 or the school at 524-4203.

Financial help is also needed. Please send your tax deductible contribution to Esperanza High School attention: Mrs. Livingston, 1830 North Kellogg Drive, Anaheim, California 92807 and a receipt will be sent by return mail.

Another meeting is planned for Monday, February 10, at the home of Mrs. Shader to discuss future plans.

'Lil Abner' on Stage

All the Dogpatch denizens will be on hand when the performing arts students at El Dorado High School in Placentia stage the musical "Lil Abner" Friday and Saturday, Jan. 31-Feb. 1, in the Valencia Auditorium, 500 N. Bradford Ave.

Directing the Capp characters in their musical comedy will be drama teacher Gai Laing, with student directors Lucinda Overton and Carrie van Amburgh. Vocal teacher Dwight Fichtner will work with the chorus, and instrumental teacher Don Zink will direct the orchestra.

Starring in the production will be Russ Hicks as Lil Abner, Sandra Humberson as Daisy Mae, Margie Oldendorf as Mammy Yokum Doug Effenburger as Pappy Yokum, John Pierson as Earthquake McGoon, Paul Lewis as Marryin' Sam, Dave Sykes as General Bullmoose, Laura Ireland as Moonbeam McSwine and Angie Isais as Appassionata von Climax.

Curtain time for both performances is 8 p.m. Tickets will be available at the door for $1.75 for general admission, $1.50 for students with ASB cards and $1 for children under 12.

DODGER DAY

The Alta Vista Country Club in Placentia will stage a Dodger Day on Wednesday, Jan. 29. Dodger players and front office personnel will participate in a golf tournament and then take part in an evening program at the country club.

Bond Committee Organizes

Almost all the posts of the central coordinators for the Citizens School Bond Committee in the Placentia Unified School District have been filled by volunteers working to pass the $20 million bond election March 4.

Heading the team are Al Barlow and Dr. Ralph Ruth as co-chairmen of the central coordinating committee. Other members of the committee include Tim Blinn, coordinator of the district's 11 elementary school area chairpersons: Bill Haskell, finance; Guy Ehrich, publications and literature; and Mary Gibbs, publicity and public relations.

Others are Lucy Grismer, telephone chairperson; Nell Shelley, secretarial services; Gale Dugherty, voter registration drive; Jim Leonard, speakers bureau; Fred Bailey, support groups; and Fran Slikker, audiovisual aids.

Chairpersons have been identified for most of the elementary attendance area, and Placentia Council PTA President Mary Liston is working with the citizens committee to fill the remaining posts.

Serving in area leadership posts are Maria Polafa, Glenknoll; Jo Spirrison, Morse; Evelyn Currie, Orchard/Glenview; Mr. and Mrs. Ned Rodriguez, Ruby/Topaz; Irene Maldonado, McFadden/Rio Vista; Ricky Moore and Pat Witchey, Sierra Vista; and Dave Hardy, Wagner.

These citizens already have put in many hours to assure the success of the bonds needed to provide enough schools for our children in the near future, noted Dr. Ruth. "However, many more people are needed to work in their home areas as callers, informational coffee hostesses and poll watchers."

In addition to workers, the committee welcomes donations to help pay for informational materials which will be made available to voters.

Anyone interested in joining the bond committee should call Tom Blinn at 993-0832 or contact an area chairperson. Contributions from individuals or organizations may be made through Bill Haskell, 528-4783.

WHAT'S IN STORE

HOW DOES YOUR GARDEN GROW?

The "Back to Nature" mood is with us. Many are planting their own gardens and harvesting satisfaction as well as fresh produce and flowers from their efforts.

Although I can't promise any "silver bells or cockle shells," Alpha Beta does have a large variety of plants and seeds to meet the needs of the "do-it-yourselfers!" I saw a good selection of bare-root fruit trees and the finest No. 1 rose bushes coming into the warehouse this week. Season-fresh flower and vegetable seeds are also being sold at a 10% discount in the produce section of the markets.

At our home, we sow a variety of lettuce seeds as a border to our flower garden. If planted now, the harvest period extends from spring through much of the summer. Loose leaf lettuce varieties probably are the easiest to grow. The leaves can be plucked at the peak of tenderness, washed, wrapped in paper toweling, and stored in a plastic bag in the refrigerator until needed for a delightful "home-grown" salad.

Yorba Linda Boulevard at Bradford, Placentia

TEE UP with BURT BROOKS

Arnold Palmer invites you to participate in the First Annual Placentia March of Dimes Golf championship.

The event will be held at the Alta Vista Country Club course on February 10 and entries must be filed not later than 5 p.m. Wednesday, February 5 at the office of the City Administrator, 401 East Chapman, Placentia, 92670. Your check must be made payable to March of Dimes, and is a tax deductable.

The $25 donation includes 18 holes of golf on this fine local golf course, and your share of the use of an electric cart, and a banquet dinner.

Even those without an official handicap may still win prizes as there will be a Calloway division for them.

To participate in the three flights, one must have a validated handicap card as of February 1. Players with handicap will compete in Championship Flight scratch to five handicaps; Flight "A" for six to ten handicap players and Flight "B" for those with 11 or higher handicaps.

There will be special prizes for lowest number of putts in each division; longest drive, etc.

All entries will tee off at 12 noon with a shot-gun start, players being assigned to a different hole on which to start and each foursome will continue until all 18 holes have been played.

Entries should be filed at once to avoid being left out of this first annual event.

***

Rotary Club members will compete in Huntington Beach on February 13 with qualifiers going to the district finals in Coronado on March 13.

The final winners (one in each class) will go to Pinehurst, N.C. to represent this district on June 1 thru 7 of this year.

The winner of the scratch to 11 division and the winner of the 12 to 18 handicap division will go to Pinehurst.

To be eligible to compete for the Pinehurst trip, the player must have qualified in Huntington Beach on February 13.

Jack Bisson should be contacted for further details.

YOUR Pharmacist SPEAKS

By John Payne
Owner-Reg. Pharmacist

Galen, a Greek physician who practiced about 150 A.D., impressed his skeptical patients with mystic symbols. From an Egyptian myth concerning the falcon god, Horus, Galen borrowed a symbol which we see everywhere today.

Horus suffered a torn eye, savs the myth, in a fierce battle. The eye was miraculously healed by the patron saint of physicians, Thoth. The "Eye of Horus", with the torn portion awaiting healing, is the symbol Galen used. He simplified it somewhat and today we know it as the familiar "Rx" you see on your doctor's prescription.

We hope the Rx you see on your doctor's prescription will remind you to bring it or phone it to us for filling. LINDA VISTA PHARMACY specializes in profesional prescription service for people who want the very best in health care for themselves and their families.

Esperanza Aztecs Lose Two More

The Esperanza Aztecs continued to have rebounding and ball handling problems again last week as they lost two more Orange League contests. The first loss came on Tuesday night when the Canyon Commanches trimmed the Aztecs, 75-69. Friday night the Brea-Olinda Wildcats devoured Esperanza, 81-68. The Aztecs currently occupy fifth place in the Orange League, possessing a record of 1-5. Their overall season record is 8-8.

The Canyon Commanches started to work for points early in their game against Esperanza. Once the Commanches built a lead they seemed determined to hold on to it. Mark Rechberg was the key man for the Commanches as he hit five of his first six shots to spark the Canyon offense. After one period of play Canyon was ahead 18-14.

Going into the second stanza Rechberg was still going strong. Canyon seemed even stronger than the first period as Mark Lamph, Greg Britton, and Conrad Byars started adding baskets of their own. The Commanches widened their lead to twelve points, making several of their hoops because of careless turnovers by the Aztecs. At halftime Canyon lead 43-31.

The third period was more or less a repeat of the first segment of the game. The only basic difference was that a few guys lost their "cool" and there was some physical contact made before the angry players could be restrained. After the tempers settled down the scoreboard revealed that Canyon was ahead by 16, 60-44.

Esperanza's defense emerged in the fourth and final period as the Aztecs stole the ball three times, thus providing Paul Peterson the opportunity to sink three straight hoops. However, it was too little too late. Canyon's Mike Maxam popped in a jumper with only four seconds left to "refrigerate" the game, 75-69.

High point scorers for Esperanza were Paul Peterson (24), Jeff Burrows (10), and Jim Baskin (14).

The game the Aztecs played against the Brea-Olinda Wildcats was close in the first period (14-7) and that was it. From the second period on the 'Cats dominated almost every phase of the game.

Brea-Olinda lead by as much as 35 points. However the Aztecs, never gave up. The final score was 81-68. Esperanza scored 33 of its 68 points in the final period. The major reasons that the Aztecs lost were because Brea-Olinda's team has bigger and taller players (thus better rebounders) and also more accurate shooters.

The leading scorers for the Wildcats were Barry Weston (18 points), Dan Hanson (16 points), and Bob Burns (12 points). Esperanza's leading scorers were Paul Peterson (17 points), Dale Rideau (14 points), and Steve Mead (11 points).

'Indian Dance Team Visits 580

Explorer Post 1097 from Garden Grove presented a program of Indian Dances at the January meeting of Pack 580. Each of the dancers had made their own authentic costume. The dance team included Laurie Laparie, Debbie Avery, Bill Wantz, Kevin Thomas, John Kelsey, Mark Tierney, Keith Acker and Al Wheeler.

Gregory Berber, Scott Hamilton, Mark Rosson and Derek Schultz were inducted into the Pack. Wolf badges were awarded to Richard Kust and Jeff Ennis. Richard Kust also received his gold and silver arrow awards. Fred Tomp was presented his Bear badge, the rank attained last month by Pat Foley.

The Webelos welcomed Dennis Reno and Pat Foley into their group. Webelos Achievement Awards have been earned by Robby Caldwell, craftsman and engineer; George Ebertin, citizen; Charles Issac, showmanship and athlete; Danny Mines, craftsman and Mark Rhone, athlete.

Saturday, January 18, the Pack enjoyed a trip to the Museum of Natural History and are now looking forward to their Blue and Gold Banquet which will be held February 6 at Bernardo Yorba Junior High School.

BOOK FAIR

The PTA board for Sierra Vista Elementary school met in the Teachers Lounge last Tuesday. The main topic for discussion was the Book Fair to be held at the school in February. Paperback books priced under $2 will be available for inspection and purchase at that time.

Golden Hawks Lead League

El Dorado's Golden Hawks went two games ahead in Orange League play by defeating the Valencia Tigers and the Sonora Raiders, 94-57, and 84-69, respectively. The Hawks completed the first round of OL play against the Tigers, and now play only 10 more league games, and expanded their win-loss streak to 6-0.

In the game against Valencia, the hopes of a 200-point performance for ED were cut short as the Tigers ran out several minutes in the first quarter without shooting, limiting the Hawks to a 20-point first period, while Valencia was held to 7 points.

ED picked up 24 more points at the end of the first half, holding a 44-24 first half lead, after the Tigers picked up 17 points. By the end of the third period, the Hawks lead by a score of 70-42, the fans wee questioning a 100-point game, on behalf of ED.

But the Hawks were able to gain 24 points in the final period, and came up 6 points shy of their goal. El Dorado's Kevin Heenan put in 17 points, Blake Withers added with 11, and Tyrone Branyan helped with 10 points.

Heenan got 11 of those points in the first period, and only played a couple of minutes in the second half.

Valencia's high scorer was Dwight Mater, with an impressive 23 points. Both Taylor and Garcia added 10 points. The Tigers were 16 for 43 from the floor and 25 for 36 from the free throw line.

El Dorado was 38 for 70 off the floor, and 17 for 25 from the line. Bob Farra was 5 of 6 from the line and Ernie Morales was 4 for 4 from the line. The Tiger's Mater was 13 for 16 from the line, drawing a great deal of the team's fouls.

The Hawks played another close game last Friday night at Sonora High School, pulling it out in the second half. The Raiders pulled out to a 24-21 lead at the end of the first period, and held the lead continuously up to the close of the third period, when the Hawks maintained a 59-53 lead.

The main factor in the Hawks sudden change was the ED coach Nash Rivera went from a zone defense to a man-to-man defense. The Hawks then started stealing and intercepting the ball.

Kevin Heenan set an Orange League game-high this season by pouring in 32 points. Blake Withers, the only junior on the varsity team, put in 27 points. The closest player to score near these two was Tyrone Branyan with 9 points.

ED was 37 for 69 from the floor, a blistering 65 per cent, and 10 for 13 from the line. The Raiders were 30 for 66 off the floor, and 9 of 16 from the line.

Neal Brower was high for the Raiders, with 21 points. Tim Dranginis was next with 15, and Tim Malott added 11 points to the losing effort.

With that victory, the Hawks are now two games ahead of Brea and Sonora, both who are 4-2, five games ahead of rival Esperanza, and six games ahead of Valencia, warming the cellar in OL.

El Dorado met Esperanza Tuesday night and will contest Brea-Olinda Friday night, to end the Hawks five game visiting stretch, and opening a five game home stand.

Valencia plays Sonora this Tuesday night at the Tigers' gym.

BOB-ETTS SCHEDULE GIRLS TRYOUTS

Bob-Etts girl's softball of Placentia will hold Major League try-outs this Saturday, February 1, starting at 9 a.m. at Wagner School in Placentia. Girls who did not register, but would like to play if openings occur, should come to try-outs with parent, to sign medical release, to establish placement rating. Most Major League girls on waiting lists were placed on teams last year. Girls are urged to get on the list if they have missed registration.

Try-outs are held in the Major League each year to place each girl in one of twelve rating categories. Managers then hold a draw on February 11 to pick names from each category to establish their team.

A record total of 659 girls from fourth through twelfth grade registered before the close of sign-ups last Saturday. Minor and Junior girls who missed sign-ups may call 524-6823 or 528-5605 to be placed on the waiting list for placement on a team as openings occur during the season.

Chuck Juliano, league Umpire-in-Chief reminds all prospective umpires, managers, coaches, and interested parents that umpire training meetings will be held each Thursday throughout February and March 3 at 7:30 p.m. at Sierra Vista School, Placentia starting February 6.

Spectators are welcome at try-outs and a snack truck will be open.

Golf Class Registration Feb. 8

Golf instruction, under the direction of Dennis Hakeman, for youth and adults will be offered as part of the Spring Session of programs of the Placentia Recreation Department. Basic instruction will include the rules of golf, grip, stance, proper selection of irons, woods, putting and nomenclature.

HOLIDAY ACTIVITIES

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Walberg and children celebrated Christmas with a family dinner in the home of Dare Walberg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis T. Kraemer. Mr. and Mrs. Kraemer's other daughter, Mrs. Dawn DeFillippo, and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Thor Walberg were also present for the family gathering.

After a busy holiday, Neal and Dare Walberg went camping in Death Valley with friends, Mr. and Mrs. Marc Foley. The two couples did a lot of sightseeing during their eight day hiatus and took the opportunity to relax and unwind.

FAMILY DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Lory Watts of Placentia entertained more than 20 guests for Christmas dinner.

Mrs. Alice Lapham, Mrs. Watts' mother, made her traditional apple pies for the holiday dinner. Mrs. Lapham is a very energetic 82 years of age.

Mr. Don Vaughn, Mrs. Anna Pond and children, Mrs. Bonnie Baker and son, and Mr. James Watts and sons, were also gathered at the family table.

Other guests included Misses Esther Calastanceo, Karen Priezibeda and Laura Bowman.

GETAWAY

Mr. and Mrs. John Steinleitner and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Frank and sons, decided to get away from it all for a few days and went camping out near Calico.

The families toured the Calico ghost town and hiked through the hills.

FURNITURE SHOPPING

Mrs. Ray Dracoules, 1st Vice Chairman of the Placentia Founders Society, has finished a week of whirlwind activity attending the Los Angeles Furniture Mart during Market Week.

During Market Week, new furniture and trends in decorating are unveiled in a festive atmosphere. Mrs. Dracoules met buyers from all over the west and attended some social functions during the week, including a gala dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Dracoules attended Market Week in preparation for the opening of their new furniture store, Raydra Interiors on Kraemer Boulevard.

SMALL WORLD

Two Placentia families have found themselves in Hong Kong. Mr. and Mrs. Greg Scharf and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones are nearly neighbors on the other side of the ocean as both families have been relocated from Placentia to Hong Kong. Children in both families had been students at Brookhaven.

SENIOR TRAVELERS

It must have been a New Year's Resolution of Placentia's Senior Citizens Club to keep traveling as they spent a few days out in Death Valley during the second week of January.

Heavy winds and blowing sand forced the bus to pull over to the side of the road for awhile, but the group then continued on their way to take in Scotty's Castle, explore gold mines and see the sights.

CYCLAMEN

Cyclamen can fill the same colorful role in winter that begonias do in the summer. Grow them in pots or enjoy them in the ground.

Teen Challenge Plans Banquet

Teen Challenge of Orange County is having their annual banquet on January 30 at 6:30 p.m. The banquet will be held at the Orange Presbyterian Church, 191 North Orange Street, Orange. The church is located across the street from the teen challenge center in the heart of Orange. For further details, call (714) 633-3000.

Newcomers Invited To Coffee

Newcomers to the Placentia-Yorba Linda area are invited to a coffee to be held at 10 a.m., February 4, by the Placentia-Yorba Linda Welcome Wagon Club at the home of Mrs. Pat Rickard in Placentia. Anyone interested in attending may phone Mrs. Jean Snook, Vice President in Charge of Membership, at 993-1631.

The Welcome Wagon Club offers newcomers an opportunity to make new friends as well as participate in any of its activities. The club sponsors several bridge groups, bowling, golf, tennis, arts and crafts, gardening, sewing, "Gadabouts", and service projects. President is Mrs. Wilma Hobbs, First Vice President is Mrs. Lisa Dean, Second Vice President is Mrs. Jean Snook, Treasurer is Mrs. Connie Phelps, Secretary is Mrs. Cora Sward, and Parliamentarian is Mrs. Mary Lent.

Library Showcase

Expanded service:

A new co-operative library system has been established in Orange County called LOCNET. This enterprise is composed of the nine public libraries of the Santiago Library System and 20 other private, school and college libraries. The goal of LOCNET is to make the special skills and resources of all the members available to the general public through the reference and inter-library loan departments of local public libraries.

Coming attraction:

Professor of English at Cal State Fullerton and author of Two books for young people, "The Magic Sword" and "The Three Treasures", Miriam Cox will speak on "Folklore Americana" Tuesday, February 4, at 8:00 p.m. in the library's multipurpose room. This is the second in a series of free community lectures sponsored by the Yorba Linda Friends of the Library.

Kultivators Hold Meet

The Yorba Linda Kountry Kultivators held their community club meeting on January 16 in the children's room at the local library.

The meeting was called to order at 7:30 p.m. by president Charles Buchanan. The evening's activities included a variety of demonstrations--from cooking to dog care to public speaking.

Following the business meeting, a film on guide dogs raised by 4-hers was shown.

The local 4-H groups invited young people from nine to 19 to join in their activities.

Elinor Bigonger To Head Hospital Auxiliary

Esperanza Hospital Auxiliary members held their first meeting of 1975 to elect new officers and plan their future activities. President pro-tem Elinor Bigonger was elected to the helm for 1975. Other new officers included: Dorothy Novinger, first vice-president; Kay Elstrom, second vice-president; La Donna Duir, third vice-president; June Vorderkunz, fourth vice-president; Margaret Rhoads, secretary; Marion O'Connell, treasurer.

Four new members were voted into the auxiliary, including Mrs. Fonya Hornbeck, Susie Marsh, Barbara Schmidt and Kay Ellstrom.

Hospital administrator Forrest Emard, spoke to the members on the encouraging progress of the hospital and expressed his appreciation along with the staff for the assistance and co-operation of the auxiliary and junior auxiliary. Emard invited all junior and senior auxiliary members to a March 5 dinner honoring new officers and members. Social hour will begin at 6:30 p.m. Dinner will be served at 7:30.

Membership chairman, Mrs. Kay Ellstrom, extends an open invitation to women in the community to join the hospital auxiliary. Those interested are urged to call 528-1047 or 528-4618.

Girls fifteen and a half years of age or older may participate in the junior auxiliary. Those interested are asked to call Debby Kann at 528-3938 or Mrs. June Vorderkunz at 528-6732.

FATHER SON NIGHT

Plans are underway for the annual Father-Son Night to be held on February 18, the Morse Avenue Elementary School PTA said this week. The event is a popular PTA function, enjoyed by many Morse fathers and sons in the past, the group said.

"How come my electric bill is so high? And we've been using less."

We know your electric bill is higher. A lot higher—even though you're conserving electricity. Why? Primarily because of the increased cost of oil.

It's our job to provide the electricity you, your family and your job require. And we must do so in a manner that meets all air pollution control regulations. This means burning foreign, low-sulfur oil in Edison generating plants. The price is set by foreign governments, and it more than tripled in the last 18 months. It could go even higher. Since January, 1972, the increasing costs of oil and the additional amounts we have had to buy are responsible for almost 90% of the increase in your electric bills.

So we won't always be so dependent on foreign oil, we're spending millions of dollars building coal and nuclear plants. We are also researching new ways to generate electricity—without foreign oil. Geothermal power. Solar power. Fuel cells. Fast breeder reactors. Nuclear fusion. Research is costly, but it will also help to reduce our reliance on foreign oil.

Projects related to the environment are expensive, too, and in 1974 will account for about 20% of our capital expenditures. In the past six years, $325 million were required to be spent for such projects. It looks like we will have to spend another $450 million for environmental purposes within the next four-year period.

On top of all this, inflation is eating into our budget—as it is yours. The cost of constructing new plants is 10 times higher than it was a few years ago, and borrowing costs have more than doubled.

Your electric bill will reflect these rising costs. What can you do to hold down your bill? Budget your use of electricity wisely. For ways to do this, send for our free booklet. Write: "Conservation," Edison, P.O. Box 800, Rosemead, CA 91770.

Musician To Appear At Local Schools

Micah Levy, former resident of Yorba Linda and first scholarship winner in the field of music in 1970 sponsored by the Music Art Society of Yorba Linda, will give three concerts for fourth, fifth and sixth graders on February 4 at the Crescent Elementary School in Orange, Fairmont and Rose Drive Schools in Yorba Linda.

The concerts, blending a musical experience with an educational one, will include demonstrations of the various predecessors of the French horn. The music ranges from classical Mozart to the contemporary Burt Bacharach.

Micah Levy, who holds a Bachelor of Music degree from California State University, Fullerton, has been playing professionally for over five years. He has to his credit one year with the Long Beach Symphony, five years with the Debut Orchestra of Los Angeles, four years with the West Coast Brass Ensemble, three years with the Brandon Sinfonette and numerous engagements as a free-lance player. He has played under such conductors as Carmen Dragon, Roger Wagner, Lawrence Foster and John Green.

Levy will be accompanied on the piano by Walter Kennon.

$50,000 Approved By PSUD

Proposals for a Career Center at Esperanza High School and reading programs at Bernardo Yorba and Kraemer Junior High Schools, were approved by the Placentia Unified School District Board of Trustees Monday night, as exemplary pilot projects.

The requests for funds for the three projects amount to $6,060.

Also in the curricular area was approval of an application for $44,000 for NDEA funding for supplementary reading materials. The funds will match money put up by the district this year for elementary reading labs, according to Dr. Barbara Peterson, and the additional money would be used to buy books, tapes and filmstrips for the labs.

"Our chances for getting this money are very good," she said. "We will know by the end of February if we are successful, so we can begin equipping labs immediately."

The Esperanza High proposal was a request for $3,430 to expand the Career Education Center by moving a wall to enlarge the career area and adding hardware and software, according to assistant principal Ron Cozort, who is in charge of counseling.

"The initial phase of the career guidance program was the purchase of curricular materials to be used by counselors with small groups," explained Dr. Peterson, assistant superintendent of instructional services. "With this phase and a final phase next year, the center will be fully equipped to provide resources for students in all career areas." Special emphasis will be placed on vocational opportunities, particularly cooperative efforts with the ROP.

Yorba Junior High's proposal requested $1,330 to purchase special interest reading materials for students working at or above grade level, explained Jade Marshall, lead reading teacher. The main goal of the program is to promote reading as " a pleasurable end in itself...and produce a generation of life-long readers".

The materials will be used as electives in the second semester of the required reading course. Students will be given an opportunity to choose from a list of 10 areas of interest and concentrate in that area for nine-week periods. Approximately 600 of Yorba's 900 students will be able to take advantage of the new program, Mrs. Marshall said.

Kraemer Junior High's project, which will be funded with $1,300, will open their reading lab after school to junior high students throughout the district who are referred for remedial help, explained principal Dick Owens and reading specialist Deborah Mercier.

Beginning Feb. 1, students may use the lab from approximately 3:15 to 4:15 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays. Students will be in small groups taught by a reading specialist. Parents will be responsible for transportation and will be asked to help as volunteer aides. Only students who are reading at least 2 ½ years below grade level, with reading expectancy equal to or greater than grade level, will be accepted in the program.

Cabaret Theater Opens

Drama lovers will soon be introduced to the Muckenthaler Cultural Center's, in Fullerton, newest venture, a cabaret theatre.

A joint effort of the Center and the California State University Fullerton Department ofTheatre, the first production will be "Blithe Spirit", one of Noel Coward's witty, fast-paced farces.

Rehearsals are now underway for the production, which opens on Thursday, February 20. "Blithe Spirit", to be staged at the Center, will be produced "cabaret" style, with audience members seated at tables for two.

The play runs through March 29, with 8 p.m. performances every Thursday, Friday and Saturday, and 6 p.m. performances on Sunday. The ticket price of $5 per person includes clost of admission, a choice of three beverages, and an assortment of gourmet snacks, such as breads, cheeses, salami and fruit.

Reservations may be made by telephoning the Center's Business Office at 879-6860 or the CSUF Theatre Box Office at 870-3371. Mail orders should be directed to the Center 1201 W. Malvern, Fullerton 92633. Tickets will also be sold at the door, if seats are available.

Featuring a cast of seven seasoned performers, "Blithe Spirit" is directed by Dr. Alvin J. Keller, Chairman of the CSUF Department of Theatre. The setting of the play is in the stylish home of Charles and Ruth Condomine, played by Judson Earney, Fullerton and Susan Payer, Anaheim.

Forever lapsing in and out of trances is the peculiar medium, Madame Arcati, played by Dale Raoul (Placentia). She mistakenly conjures up the ghost of Charles' first wife, Elvira, who delights in playing tricks on the household.

Art Winners Named

Winners of the high school art contest sponsored by the Placentia Junior Round Table were announced by Mrs. Richard Yarger, Project Chairman.

Cindy Sikos, a senior at Esperanza High School, captured first place with her scratch board entry of a surfer. Cindy's entry will go on to compete on the county and state level.

Other winners were John Gibson, a senior at Valencia High School, who won second place for an original oil painting and an honorable mention for a scratch board entry. Honorable mention was also awarded to John Rush, a senior at El Camino Real High School for his crayon batik entitled "Carmen Miranda."

All three winners received a gift certificate from a local art supply store. In addition, Cindy's entry was framed for her by the Decorator Gallery.

Mrs. Thelma De Gode Smith, art instructor with the North Orange County Department of Adult Education, served as judge.

Sierra Vista Course

The importance of developing sight and hearing in growing children will be the subject of ten sessions for parents of children at Sierra Vista Elementary School in Placentia during the spring semester.

School psychologist Howard Plass will conduct the series on visual and auditory perception at 3:30 p.m. Mondays, now in progress in the Sierra Vista multipurpose room, 1811 N. Placentia Ave., according to Principal Barbara Hadzoglon.

Included in the series are sessions on "Perception of Sound" Feb. 3, "Perception of Spatial Relationships" Feb. 10, "Perception of Sequence" Feb. 24, "Perception of Parts-to-Whole Relationships" Mar. 10, "Figure-Ground Discrimination" Mar. 31, "Body Awareness of Gross Motor Abilities" Apr. 14, "Eye-Hand Coordination" Apr. 28, "Association and Generalization" May 5 and "Organization" May 12.

Parents will have an opportunity to ask questins and discuss problems at each session.

Parent Effectiveness Is PCC Class Goal

A class in Parent Effectiveness will be offered at Pacific Christian College, beginning on February 4.

Sponsored by the Pacific Counseling Center, the special training covers: "how to listen so children will talk", "how to talk so children will listen", "how to set rules that children well follow", "how to resolveconflicts so no one loses".

Instructor is Robert L. Pavelsky.

Classes meet from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. on Tuesdays from the February 4 starting date through March 25. Meeting place is the PCC chapel at 2500 East Nutwood Avenue in Fullerton.

Deadline for registration is February 1, cost is $65 per person or $100 per couple.

Registration For Draft Available

Are you a male, 18 years or older? If so, have you registered with the Selective Service System?

Although inductions have stopped, young men are still required to register for the draft when they reach the age of 18. There is a 60-day period in which to register beginning 30 days prior to the 18th birthday and ending 29 days after the birthday.

Placentia residents may now register for Selective Service locally at the City of Placentia's City Clerk's Office, 401 E. Chapman Avenue, Placentia or at the Placentia Office of Social Services, 201 N. Bradford Avenue, Placentia from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Crime In Unincorporated Areas Up, Says Gates

Brad Gates, Sheriff-Coroner of Orange County, today released information regarding the crime trend for the unincorporated area of the County during 1974, including areas near Yorba Linda. Total crimes committed, as compared to 1973, increased 3.95%

During this time period, the total population served by the Sheriff-Coroner Department has decreased .13%.

Serious crimes, however, increased 18.4% over 1973. There were 8,633 violations in this category comprised of 7 homicides (a decrease of 30.0%), 50 rapes (a decrease of 25.4%), 129 robberies (an increase of 18.3%), 316 aggravated assaults (an increase of 30.0%), 3,730 burglaries (an increase of 12.8%), 3,884 larcenies (an increase of 24.4%), 515 auto thefts (an increase of 19.2%), and 2 manslaughters (an increase of 100.0%). The most frequent crimes committed, as shown by the annual statistics, were in the areas of burglary, larceny, narcotics and violations against family or child.

Other data released indicated there were 33,172 actual crimes handled by the Department. Sheriff's Deputies made 3,645 felony and 13,128 misdemeanor arrests, in addition to 4,996 juvenile arrests. The County jail facility booked a total of 51,040 prisoners. During the year the average daily head count at the Main Jail was 865, while the average daily head count at the Theo Lacy Facility (Branch Jail) was 212 with a total of 6,751 prisoners being assigned there throughout the year.

During 1974 the Sheriff-Coroner Department absorbed the James A. Musick Facility (Industrial Farm) making it a branch of the Jail Division. A total of 353 prisoners were assigned to the Musick Facility in 1974 with an average daily head count of 67.

The annual report also indicates that the Coroner's Division investigated 4,845 deaths, including 62 homicides, 2,331 deaths by natural causes, 249 suicides, 206 traffic accident fatalities, 299 accidental deaths, and 1,648 deaths which were not subsequently assigned as Coroner's cases. In addition, there are 50 deaths of which the causes are still pending. The Coroner's Division found a decrease (1.88%) in autopsies performed: 2,336 such investigations were completed during 1974, as compared with 2,381 in 1973.

In releasing these statistics to the public, Sheriff-Coroner Gates being recently elected to this position commented, "We feel our Department has progressed substantially toward the goal of professionalizing law enforcement through the guidance of retired Sheriff James A. Musick, and the citizens of Orange County can be assured of continued efficiency in the combatting of crime within the community".

Diane Bishop In Theater At Riverside

Diane Bishop, Placentia, a freshman at California Baptist College, Riverside is a member of the college's performing Reader's Theater.

Miss Bishop is working towards an elementary credential with a diversified major. She is a 1974 graduate of Valencia High in Placentia where she was a drill team rank leader.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H.E. Bishop.

California Baptist College is the only four year fully accredited Southern Baptist liberal arts college on the Pacific West Coast.

Four Wheelers Convention Here

The California Association of Four Wheel Drive Clubs held its Southern District meeting in Placentia Saturday, attracting between 200 and 300 four-wheel car owners to the first conference in the state ever held this far South.

The close knit club, whose members must own a four-wheel drive vehicle to be eligible to join, is one of the largest associations in California with an approximate 5,000 members.

Jerry Wendt, Arcadia, past Vice President of the district clubs and conservation chairman of the Southern District for 1975, explained that members are increasingly active in conservation projects as four-wheeling has been brought closer to home by the gasoline shortage.

"We do less long driving now," he confirmed.

Wendt said that four-wheeling as a mode of recreation began after World War II, which nurtured the first four-wheel drive vehicles. Since then, it has turned into a thriving business and a large family recreational effort in which men, women and children combine their talents.

Currently, the members meeting in Placentia, represented 89 clubs in an area south ofVentura and Bakersfield to the Mexican border. Total membership of the district is around 2,400.

Subjects discussed at the district meeting involved principally conservation, education and safety, Wendt explained.

The district meeting was held in Brian Chuchua's Jeep Agency at Placentia and Orangethorpe Avenues in the large bay shop area which had been cleared for the occasion.

The state association will hold its annual convention at the Sheraton Hotel in Fresno January 25 and 26.

Registration February 8

Saturday, February 8, will be the first day of registration for the Placentia Recreation and Maintenance Services Department's Spring session of classes.

The special Saturday registration day will be held at the Back Community Building at 201 North Bradford Avenue from 8 a.m. until 12 noon.

Registration will continue the following week from 8 a.m. until 6 p.m. Monday through Friday at the Recreation Department office at 117 North Main Street.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING TO BE HELD BY THE PLACENTIA CITY COUNCIL FOR REVIEW AND ADOPTION OF AN APPLICATION FOR FEDERAL FUNDING THROUGH THE HOUSING AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT ACT OF 1974.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on February 4, 1975, the City Council of the City of Placentia will hold a public hearing for review and adoption of an application for federal funds available through the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974. This hearing will commence at 7:30 p.m. and will be held in the City Council Chambers, 401 E. Chapman Avenue, Placentia.

More specifically, the Housing and Community Development Act provides funds to Cities and counties for land acquisition, public works constructive, rehabilitation, code enforcement, special projects for the elderly and handicapped as well as other activities for the improvement of urban communities. The Act further provides that the primary objective of the grant program is to prevent or arrest conditions of slum or blight, to provide community facilities and services, especially to families of low and moderate income, and to assist emergency community needs.

It is the intention of the Placentia City Council to participate in this program. Therefore, the residents of Placentia are urged to attend this hearing in order to review the plan for the first year's projects. The public is also invited to make written comments which should be sent to the City Council prior to the scheduled public hearing.

Additional information regarding this hearing may be obtained by contacting the Planning Division (714) 993-8124.

The Grand Opening banners still stretch across the attractive Spanish building in Placentia's posh Town Center Shopping Center. The fate of 90% of all new businesses has just happened to the plant boutique shop. It has gone kaput, out of business and is no more.

The wisdom of the leaders of Placentia once more comes into a clouded area of doubt. Now two out of the three shops are vacant; and the third will be there only a year before moving across the street.

How posh can any shopping center be with such glaring vacancies? Is this the highest and best use for these properties? Any ninth grade student of civics could tell us the answer to that.

Yet the City Council of Placentia consistently fights to keep us from locating our established business in one of those buildings. It just doesn't make good sense. It seems to me that the City Council of Placentia could do something positive for the Town Center merchants, the citizens of this city, for the developer who has spent millions of dollars here and for two local people who only want to conduct their business in the Town Center.

Escrow Story

An amusing story on how escrow companies came into being was sent to me by the Valencia Bank Escrow this week. I would like to share it with you.

A basic method was used long ago in England to sell property. The seller and buyer would walk out on the land that was for sale and picking up handfuls of dirt would throw them at each other. This act would seal the transaction. In rock country or cow country it presented some difficulties. The buyer and seller would have to ask themselves if the sale was worth a possible broken head or coming out smelling like anything but a rose.

One day in the County of Round Cakes, England, Lord Roundbottom was going to sell his dairy to Lord Plumbottom. The day the sale was to take place happened to be a very rainy Sunday. Both the buyer and seller were dressed in their Sunday best and really hated to go out among the cows and start throwing the stuff at each other. They had a brilliant idea!

Why not have the seller's foreman stand against the barn and both seller and buyer could throw the dirt at him. The foreman agreed to be the target for a small sum of money. The foreman's name was Sam Crow. He never used his first name, only the initial of his first name and hence was called "S. Crow".

Two Quotes

"Storms make oaks take deeper root," according to George Herbert.

One of my favorite quotes is by John Ruskin, a philosopher, who said, "The highest reward for man's toil is not what he gets for it but what he becomes because of it".

Little League Signups Set

Uniform registration dates for Little League Baseball are set for all Little Leagues and Senior Leagues in California District 56, including Brea, Fullerton, La Habra, Placentia, Yorba Linda, Whittier, and north La Mirada, the group said this week.

February 1 is a second resistration date for boys living within this area. Most of the leagues also sponsor Big League Teams and will also accept 16 through 18 year old registration at these sign up periods.

The purpose of the uniform effort is to simplify publicity and to minimize confusion on the part of the public. These registration dates apply for both the regular Little League age group (8 through 12 years) and the Senior Division age group (13 through 15 years). Boys must be 8 years old prior to August 1, 1975, for their first registration.

All the leagues in District 56 with the exception of Fullerton's leagues operate Senior Divisions. Boys from Fullerton (13 through 15 years) who wish to register and play in the Senior Division may sign up with the following leagues: Golden Hill residents east of Harbor Blvd. are within Brea's boundaries. West Fullerton and Golden Hill west of Harbor Blvd. must play with La Habra Senior Division. East Fullerton boys must register and play with Placentia Senior Division.

According to Little League Charter Regulations, players must register with the league where they reside. Where a Little League does not sponsor a Senior Division, a neighboring league may include such a league as a part of its chartered boundary for 13 through 15 year old players. All boys registering must be accompanied by a parent for legal signature and should present a legal proof of age document. The registration times on the two Saturdays are from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. Several leagues have additional registrations to allow more options and these dates and times are listed with the leagues' information that follows and on school distribution information sheets.

PLACENTIA: Registration Site: Ruby Drive School, Placentia. Additional date and time beside the ones listed: Wednesday, January 29, 1975, at 7:30 p.m. until 9 p.m. For further information telephone: Tom Redd - 524-5023 or Bob Hauran - 993-0673 or Jim Andruss - 528-0174. Boundaries: On the West from Placentia Avenue and Riverside Freeway north on Placentia Avenue and the city limits to the Brea City Limits on the north. The North Boundary follows the Placentia City limits to the east to Yorba Linda City Limits. The East Boundary again follows the city limits to Lakeview Avenue to the Santa Ana River. The South Boundary is the Santa Ana River west to Jefferson, from Jefferson to the Riverside Freeway to Placentia Avenue. (Notice: All residents in the La Valencia Homes are in the City of Brea and should not register in the Placentia Little League.)

All boys between the ages of 13 and 15 years of age living in the East Fullerton Little League must register and play in the Placentia Senior Division

Cooley Will Speak To Library Meet

The annual meeting of the Friends of the Placentia Library will be held Thursday, January 30 at 7:45 p.m.

The meeting will be held at the Placentia Library. The guest speaker will be the noted California author Leland Frederick Cooley.

Mr. Cooley writes both fiction and non-fiction. His novel, "California", is fast becoming a best seller, and the non-fiction book "Pre-Medicated Murder, which is an objective look at over-the-counter drugs, is now in the book stores. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Mr. Cooley will autograph books purchased at the meeting.

School Board Candidates Scheduled

Golden PTA and the Placentia Junior Round Table are co-sponsoring a "School Board Candidates Night."

The event will be held in the Multi-Purpose Room at Golden Upper, 7:30 p.m., on February 6.

The School Board Candidates will be present to briefly state their qualifications and future plans.

There will also be two speakers expressing pro and con views about the School Bond Election to be held on March 4.

Marcia Willet and Bonnie Steele are co-chairing the evening.

DAIRIES DIPPING

During October, the U.S. had 11,118,000 dairy cows on farms, down 14,000 head from September, and 2 per cent below a year earlier.
